1           The parties in the above-captioned action hereby move to continue the July 21, 2014,
2 hearing and briefing deadlines by approximately two months.. As grounds for this motion, the
3 parties state as follows:
4

5           1.       Since filing its Motion for Contempt, the FTC has been obtaining additional
6 evidence from third parties regarding Defendant Crystal Ewing's involvement in the prize
7 promotion activities of Puzzles Unlimited, LLC, that it believes would support a compensatory
8 sanction of approximately $2 million. The FTC has issued document subpoenas and noticed the 9 deposition of Puzzles Unlimited and its principal, Marc Goldstein. The FTC expects that this 10 deposition will, among other things, facilitate the admission of critical evidence.
11

12           2.       In addition, the parties have embarked on settlement negotiations and believe that 13 the requested continuance would be mutually beneficial and potentially result in resolution or 14 narrowing of the issues.
15

16           3.       Therefore, the parties are jointly requesting that this Court implement the 17 schedule below:

18                   a.   Deadline for the FTC's supplemental submission in support of compensatory
19 relief – July 30, 2014;

20                   b.   Deadline for the Defendant's response to the FTC's submissions – August 20, 21 2014;

22                   c.   Deadline for the FTC's reply – September 3, 2014; and 23

24                   d.   Hearing Date in mid-to-late September (the parties are available on the 25 following dates: September 17, 18, 23, and 24).
